About

Dr. Diane Hamilton

In addition to being a nationally syndicated radio host, award-winning speaker, author, and educator, Dr. Hamilton is a thought leader in the fields of leadership, sales, marketing, management, engagement, personality, and motivation. To help improve relationships in the workplace—and performance as a result—Dr. Hamilton draws on her decades of work experience in software, computers, corporate training, pharmaceuticals, real estate, mortgage lending, social media, education, and publishing.

A sought-after expert in emotional intelligence, Dr. Hamilton's research has been published widely in peer-reviewed journals. She is also the author of several books sold worldwide including: How to Reinvent Your Career, It's Not You, It's Your Personality, and Cracking the Curiosity Code. Her books are required reading in MBA programs throughout the world.

Her success in multiple industries, authoring books, and career as an MBA Program Chair and Assistant Professor propelled Dr. Hamilton into the speaking world, and now she is regularly hired by companies like Forbes to speak to organizations to increase engagement, improve productivity, and reduce conflict. Whether through her radio show, a webinar, or a live presentation, Dr. Hamilton presents to and interviews leaders from some of the top organizations in the modern workplace.

Incorporating her nearly four decades of real-world experience, Dr. Hamilton provides strategies that are ready to implement and create results. With a Ph.D. in Business, she has taught over 1,000 business-related courses, is a qualified Myers-Briggs, a certified Emotional Intelligence instructor, and the creator of the Curiosity Code Index assessment, which is the first and only instrument that determine factors that impact curiosity in the workplace.
